Service Is Our Middle Name

Service with a smile — that's what you'll get from the Girls Service Club. Besides serving the community by caring for a rest home, collecting for March of Dimes, helping the Key Club throw a Christmas party, and giving a Thanksgiving dinner for underprivileged children, they have contributed their efforts to the school in the form of managing the concession stands for football and basketball games, decorating a Christmas tree for the office, putting up bulletin boards at the beginning of the year, selling doughnuts, having bake sales, and sponsoring the Homecoming Dance.

“May I Have Your Attention Please —”

Mr. Robert E. Brower
A & T State University, B.A.
Atlanta University, M.B.A.
Always ready to listen, he aids the students with their schedules and other problems.

Mr. Walter Eugene Nail
Wake Forest, B.A.
Appalachian, M.A.
Taking time off from the “West Condy Kitchen,”
Mr. Nail finds time to aid the Student Council.
His second year at West has proved most successful.

Mr. Jerry Owen Jernigan
Mitchell College, Diploma
Lenoir-Rhyne College, A.B.
UNC-G, M.A.
With his own private office many miles away across the hall from the main office, Mr. Jernigan always keeps up with what’s happening.

"I'd Like To Make A Few Additional Announcements . . ."

Getting experience in office work, Charlot Frye, Pat Pindexter, Anne Stewart, Susan Carter, Linda Harbin, Susan Teague, Marty Hayworth, and Bonnie Kyle help out with the mad rush in the office.

Mrs. Betty S. Johnson
Draughn's Business College
Being a secretary is not easy, but she gets the job done and does it well. (You may find her nibbling between absentee sheets!)

Mrs. Irene M. Harper
Ideal Business College
A competent secretary, Mrs. Harper also keeps close tabs on the money at West.

The Guiding Light

Miss Rosalie T. Adams
Cotawba College, B.S.
Appalachian State University, M.A.
The Seniors could not do without Miss Adams; she always gets to the root of the matter since gardening is one of her hobbies.

Mrs. Marion B. Simpson
Hampton Institute, B.S. & M.S.
All students camp on her doorstep waiting to share their problems with a true friend.

Mrs. Mildred Miller Furches
Wading through piles and piles of senior transcripts, she always finds her way out to give a welcoming smile to the many students who enter the guidance office.

Mrs. Mimi J. Dennis
N.C. Central University, B.A.
Since she took up karate, there is a certain hush among those entering the library.

You Are What You Eat

(Below) Gary Dull, Mrs. Edna Binkley, Mrs. Carol Beck, Mrs. Sue Cale, Mrs. Hazel Jones, Mrs. Elizabeth Miller, Mrs. Vera Maynard, Mrs. Vivian Evans, Mrs. Florence Rathrock.

The Games People Play

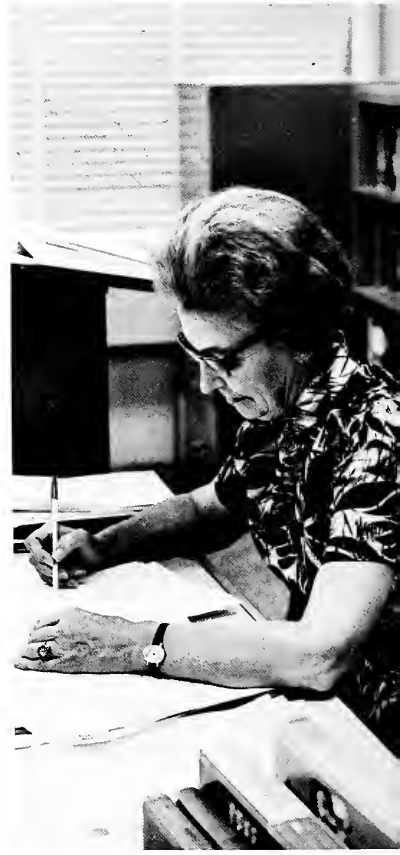

Miss Norma Jean Harbin
Appalachian State University
Showering students with a wide variety of sports, she makes her classes popular; but remember, "Five points off for no white socks."

Mr. Napoleon R. Cloud
St. Augustine's College
A&T State University
Mr. Cloud is always up in the air about playing on the trampoline. Enforcing safety is an important part of gymnastics.

To Build A Fire, The Flame Of Knowledge

Mrs. Carol H. Petrea
Catawba College, A.B.
This modern-day teacher must possess a time machine as she seems to know all characters of literature personally.

Miss Ruth U. Farthing
Appalachian State University, B.S.
She is a "far thing" from being unfriendly. Students always find a smiling face and a kind word from Miss Farthing.

Mrs. Rebecca Fisher Reed
Wittenberg University, B.S.
Many of our students do not know her since she is at West only two periods a day, but those who do know her, know she is "muy simpatico"!

Mrs. Loretta June Hotfield
Marshall University, A.B.
Sponsoring the Anchor Club is not all she does; she is also a good sport for posing with a favorite of many teachers!

Mrs. Morgoret S. Neely
Bennett College, B.A.
You may hear "Férmez la bouche" in room 409, but only her French students know for sure.

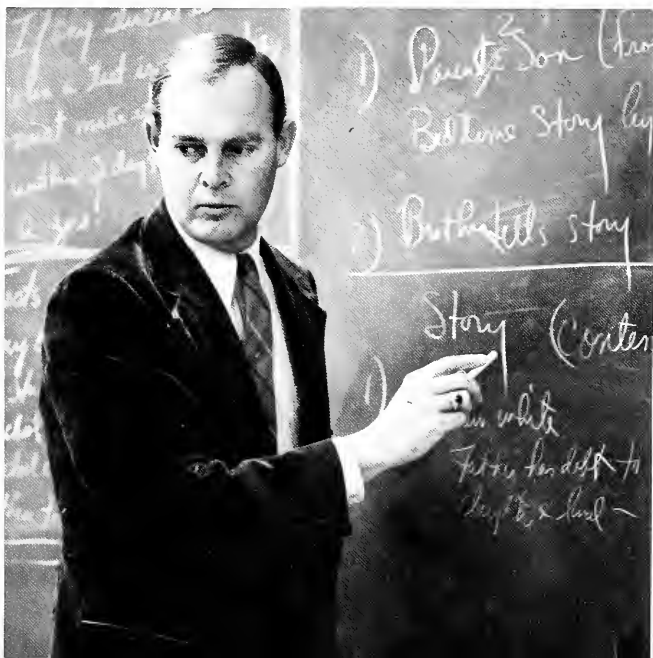

Mr. James Neil Anderson
Catawba College, A.B.
Appalachian State University, M.A.
A real pippin — That's Mr. Anderson!
Teaching Mass Media, Senior Honors
English and other sundry courses, he keeps his humor always popping.

Mrs. Lelia Margaret Fulton
Hampton Institute, B.S.
Aside from her hobbies, which are teaching English and International Relations, she likes to relax at school with her sewing and reading.

Mrs. Adelaide C. Westbrook
Meredith College, A.B.
Appalachian State University, M.A.
In addition to teaching English and Latin, she accompanies serious (?) Latin students to Roma! "Soc et tuem."

Mrs. Juonita Stainback Clarke
Meredith College, A.B.
This fine teacher gets an "A" in English — but not an "A" like Hester Prynne's!

Mrs. Maxine Swaringen Mast
High Point College, A.B.
Aside from exhibiting Mark Spitz posters in the teachers lounge, she is a dedicated teacher, and students appreciate her concern.

Mr. Paul E. Darden, Jr.
East Carolina University, B.S.
"Fore!" Watch out for Mr. Darden, because the golf team is sure to win with his help.

Problems, Problems, Math Problems!

Mrs. Nancy Owen White
University of N.C. at Greensboro, A.B.
According to this fun math teacher πr^2 ; little does she know, πr round, and corn bread r^2

Mrs. Gladys Blalock Crane
University of Alabama, B.S.
Mrs. Crane lifts her students to a new height in the knowledge of math.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Currin
Meredith College, A.B.
Miss Currin gets a kick out of sponsoring the drill team besides exhibiting art like the Mona Lisa.

Mr. Arthur F. Gray
Winston-Salem State University, B.A.
He has numerous experiences in different areas; teaching general math, Algebra I, and geometry, he still finds time to coach sports and sponsor
the Afro-American Society.

Mr. Franklin L. Robinson
University of N.C. at Chapel Hill
"A grit by any other name would smell!" Sponsoring "Grits International" is a full time job besides teaching history.

Mrs. Harriet McAuley Binkley
Floro MacDonald College, B.A.
A dedicated history teacher and a true friend, she perks up between classes with a cup of coffee.

The American Social Problem — History

Mr. Noah Reginald Teague
Carson-Newman College, B.A.
The University of North Carolina at Greensboro, M.Ed.
"A film a day keeps boredom away." When Mr.
Teague is not acting like Cecil B. DeMille, you will find him in the office.

Mr. John Michael Buckner
East Carolina University, B.S.
Duh, where do we begin to tell the story of a chump who is afraid of Bill Worden? Mr.
Buckner's "Bill Worden Day" makes the year
a historical event.

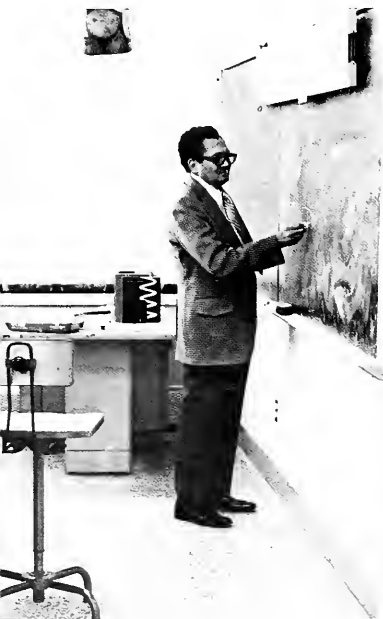

Mrs. Margaret Walker McLeod
Guilford College, B.A.
Handling our American social problems is a burden; but if she can produce solutions in the classroom, the problems will be half solved.

Col. Leon M. Hope
 Pennsylvania Military College, B.A.
 U.S. Army Command and General Staff
 College, Military Science.
 Col. Hope keeps in step with the times and is in line with what's happening at West.

Mr. Fred Douglas Porker
 Livingstone College, B.S.
 Columbio University, M.A.
 The explosion in building two last week was not the furnace;
 it was Mad Dr. Porker playing with his chemistry set. Right, Egor?

Mr. Melvin Louis Newton, Jr.
 University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill,
 A.B.
 Wheeling his way to West every morning,
 Mr. Newton has time to observe the ecology of Clemmons.

"The Foot Bone Connected To The Ankle Bone, The Ankle Bone" . . .

Mrs. Helen M. Sheely
Our Lady of the Elms College, B.A.
She often finds her students a pain in the cervical vertebrae while trying to decide the difference between male and female Drosophila. Mrs. Sheely finds a little bit of stiffness in Hercamer, but he is friendly.

Jobs-Now More Than Ever!

Mr. Clifton O. Matthews
A & T State University
Being a tiger at heart, Mr. Matthews takes an extra curricular activities such as promoting candy sales.

Mrs. Juonita Hightower Bowser
Brenau College, A.B.
Job hunting for students is not easy, but she always seems to find the right job for the right person.

Above: Pat Cannon won first place in the DECA District Public Speaking Contest.

Industrial Cooperative Training

Mr. Charles Ogburn Giles
Wake Forest University, B.A.
George Peabody College, M.A.
Always staying in the Christmas spirit, Mr. Giles remains a favorite of ICT students.

Mr. George Roland Ernst
Appalachian State University, B.S.
His favorite saying is, "Let's get to work!" and his students really do. (Always on time, too.)

Get Ready, Go! The West Forsyth Typing Team

Mrs. Dorothy F. Russell
Appalachian State University, B.S.
An avid fan of Mark Spitz, Mrs. Russell swims through piles of typing papers, although not all of them are gold medal winners.

Mrs. Iris Carroll Bridges
Catawba College, B.A.
Being the mother of five boys has helped this teacher in her other business — training students.

Mrs. Beverly Fowler Norman
Western Carolina University, B.S.
Mrs. Norman has the key secret to friendship; better known as "Mom," she is a real friend to her students.

Mrs. Audrey B. Crater
Appalachian State University, B.S.
Despite her many activities as a business teacher, C.O.O. advisor, an FBLA sponsor, she still remains fresh as a daisy.

Mrs. Martha Collette Deol
Appalachian State University, B.S.
Her doys seem a little drawn out as the master potter tries to mold her students.

Mr. Edward R. Sugg
N.C. State University, B.S. and M.S.
There is a draft in room 108, but he seems to cover the problem with his worm personality.

Mrs. Elizabeth Martin Greene
University of North Carolina at Greensboro, B.S.H.E.
Making "Susie Homemakers" is her prime concern as she dresses up the class with her many creations.

Miss Sally Elizabeth Huffman University of North Carolina at Greensboro, B.S.H.E. and M.S.H.E.
Kind, versatile, concerned, helpful — these traits make Miss Huffman loved by all.

Mr. Thomas C. Pratt
V.P.I., B.S.
Mr. Pratt is a man outstanding in his own field. He also sponsors FFA.

Right: Winners of the spring '72 soil judging contest. E. Orrell, E.
Kyle, O. Daub

There's A Song In The Air

Mr. Richard Earle Cocklin Bridgewater College, B.S.
University of Georgia, M.M.E.
Although a newcomer to West, Mr. Cocklin has tuned in to the atmosphere here.

*Bruce,
It has been a rough year, but and enjoyable one. These last three months have been most profitable, and you have contributed to this. Best of luck in the future and keep up the good work -
R.E. Cocklin*

Mr. Randy Keith Emilson
Roberts Wesleyan College
Cotawba College, A.B.
Mr. Emilson came to West in February, replacing Mr. Cocklin. In addition to his love for music, he enjoys boating, water skiing, and cars.

The Wheel Of Time

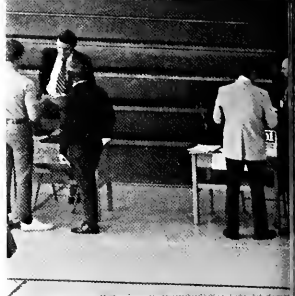

Nymphs Of The Valley

“Now I Would
Fulfill Myself,
But How Shall
I Unless I
Become A Planet
With Intelligent
Lives Dwelling
Upon It?
Is Not
This Every Man’s Goal?”

— Kahlil Gibran

We once stood outside and only looked in.

But there was a crack in the door.

So we pushed the door

And in we came.

In we came and found new faces

new problems

new joys

waiting for us — expecting us.

We faced each individually, and most often,

Successfully.

The door has closed again;

there is no turning back.

We must experience only the present and future,

and only remember the past.

We will complete this experience, learn from it —

And move on to new ones.

Once upon a time there was a senior class. It had not always been a senior class. It grew from a nothing, rather a bunch of nothings.

Now these nothings grew into people, and these people grew into individuals. And together these individuals came. What they created was a sophomore class — a very fine sophomore class indeed. But since they were aggressive and daring individuals, they were not satisfied with the third class position. So they put under their belts achievements, and into their minds knowledge. And with this knowledge, they went up a level.

Now in this change of levels, there also came a change in individuals. The individuals were of different cultures, each having something to share with the other. They came. They met. They shared. And a breath of fresh air blew across the school and infiltrated the class.

Because of the great knowledge the class had attained, they were allowed to advance to the highest level. They were seniors. Now into this high and almighty position they settled. They had gained their credentials. Their merits and faults were evident. There was no question as to where they had been and what they had done. The question was where were they going? And what were they going to do? But they could no more depend on each other.

What they achieved after would depend on their individual efforts. For if they learned nothing else, it was that they were individuals.

Here's to our dear old West High,
Of which we are so proud
With victory our motto,
Our voices we raise loud.
Our banners raised in Titan praise,
Our name we shall uphold;
So here's to dear old West High,
And her green, her white and gold.
Years after we have parted
Our memories shall hold
Those glorious days at West High,
And her green, her white and gold.

Bruce,

The year is finally over... Thank heavens!
It's been some year hasn't it? I'll never forget my first and only year at West.

History class has been some experience hasn't it? I guess we'll never agree on that "lady" (?) will we? It was fun getting to discuss what an American is,
or what justice is, and maybe what a hero is.
I've never ever forgot (I'm backwards) remember the runs in Celestial

Bruce,
Well, this has been quite a year but it's almost over with just one more to go! It's been fun in Chorus and English. Good luck this summer, next year and the years to come!

Bruce,
It been another hectic year. Hope to see you some time this year. Don't forget to go to all the Council of Min. meetings, and the Board meetings.

Bruce,
If nothing else, we must have a common hatred for G.F. Handel for writing all those stupid scales in "Let Their Celestial Concert all Unite." But we must have sung them as well as anyone. Any Tenor has a fine voice but yours is especially so. Have fun and I hope you don't think the 11th grade twice. Once is enough.

Dear Bruce,
Well - as you know I'll will graduate this year - and I'm going to miss this school so much. I hope your year had been as great as mine has. You are a real nice guy and I enjoyed knowing you. Remember all the programs we gave and all the "BOOS" also. Have a wonderful senior year and don't forget to put God first in your life and you will be very happy! God Bless you always!

Sincerely,
Joy Hobb
